PLEASE TAKE GREAT CARE TO ENSURE THAT YOUR RETURN IS WELL PACKAGED (IN THE ORIGINAL PACKAGING) AS SHOPSTUFF CANNOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DAMAGE CAUSED IN TRANSIT

Fault claim within 7 days of delivery- Return the item to Currency Systems for inspection. An offer of replacement, return of product back to customer, refund or credit will be made subject to the findings of the inspection. If a genuine fault is found then a credit of £6.00+ vat will be made to your account as a contribution towards postage costs (applicable to shipments over 2kg only).

Fault claim after 7 days of delivery- Return the item to Currency Systems for inspection, if a manufacturing fault is found this will be repaired and the goods returned to you, non-remote UK mainland only, small delivery surcharges will apply for remote or offshore address.

If no fault is found or the error is caused by operator misuse or incorrect procedure return will be subject to a fixed cost of £25+ vat to cover labour and £12.50+ vat for non-remote mainland insured UK delivery.

We will endeavour to repair & despatch any machine within 10 working days, this may not always be possible if non-stock parts are required, or if the machine needs to be returned to the manufacturer. Well packaged returns can be sent via Royal Mail or by courier, we always recommend that additional insurance is taken to cover any damage in transit. Courier services can be found at www.interparcel.co.uk

For machines that are returned and repaired the customer has the option of having the machine sent back in the same packaging it came in, but Currency Systems take no responsibility for damage caused in transit as we are not covered by our couriers. Alternatively, we can re-pack in a suitably protected box and insure against damage for just £12.50 + vat.

Please tick box if you wish us to re-pack and insure your machine.@£12.50+vat

Any machine not paid for or claimed will be kept for 60 days and then disposed of.
